From Fr Barry: My thanks to those that kindly came to the Presbytery Garden clear up on Saturday 27 October - great Work was done. The next one is on Saturday 8 December, 11.30 am- 1.00 pm when there is still lots to be done!

Last Tuesday we had an audit of our Parish finances by Julie Coyne our Dorset Financial Mentor.

Today (Sunday 11 November) our choir will be part of the choir at the Requiem at 4.00 pm at St Mary's Anglican Church at which the Bishop of Salisbury will preside and preach.

World Day of the Poor [nominated by our Holy Father] will be kept on Sunday 18 November. Whilst on the subject of the poor, can I thank you for your continued support of our local Food Bank, all Donations are gratefully received.

Morning and Evening prayers, and for that matter, prayers after Masses to Our Lady and Stations of the Cross. There is no reason why I should lead them, they are the prayers of the gathered church, So could be led by anyone of us. If you would like to lead such prayers then have a word with me! No one has come forward to me so far!

On Saturday 17 November there will be no Mass or confessions here due to the Diocesan silver jubilee celebrations for our Deacons in the Cathedral. I shall be attending along with Deacon Nick. There will be a couple of places in my car, should anyone wish to attend. Also on 15 December when I will be giving an Advent day of recollection at Honiton

Whilst I was away recently there was the opportunity for some reading and I came across a quote from Thoreau which echoed with me: "our life is frittered away with details.... Simplify, simplify" With that in my mind I wish to simplify my life my getting rid of some of the clutter that is in the presbytery! [Along it has to be said with the clearing out of a deceased friend's flat, And another book entitled The life of Stuff!]. To that end I will host a sale on Saturday 24 November from 11.00 am till 1.00 pm at the Church meeting room. Be there for some bargains!

Blessing of Graves: During November is offer the chance to remember those who have died in various ways, one of them is to bless the graves of those who have gone before us, On Sunday 11 November I will be at the Weymouth Road Cemetery from 2.30 pm. And on Sunday 25 November I will be at Fordington Cemetery at 2.30 pm

Following on from our Holy Father's letter in August, and our bishop's last pastoral letter in September, there will be a service of penance and healing at the RC Church of St Mary and St Catherine in Bridport on the evening of Friday 30 November at 7.00pm.

On Fridays the office is staffed by volunteers from the parish community, our thanks to them!

Advance notice! During the week of prayer for Christian Unity, I have volunteered us to host the prayers on Tuesday 22 January at 12.00 noon and a simple soup lunch afterwards. Offers of help with this occasion would be appreciated!

Ignatian spirituality tells us that we are not alone;
that God is not removed from our world.

The task is not so much about getting out of our mess in order to find God, but more, much more, about bringing God into our mess.
God meets us in our personal experience, in our relationships, dreams, hopes, pains and worries.

[From 'Finding God in all Things' by Brian Grogan sj]
