The Sunday Mass Obligation: In view of the measures that have been necessary to control the spread of Covid-19, the obligation to participate in the Sunday Eucharist, as expressed in The Catechism of the Catholic Church, has been suspended.

The Tablet asked the pre-eminent canon lawyer Fr Ladislav Orsy how this might be best expressed when the time comes to reinstate it. He said, "I have tried more than once to write about the 'obligation to attend Sunday Mass', but it is difficult to be both compact and comprehensive. When it is time for the bishops to give directions, I suggest their message should be framed not in legal terms but in the context of thanksgiving – the great and perpetual thanksgiving prayer of the Church that is the Eucharist – a blessing that should flow out into our daily life. It isn't helpful to speak of the 'obligation' to attend Mass on Sunday 'under the penalty of sin'. Better to stress the sweet expectation of our Redeemer. Then the personal responsibility can be explained: each person should be generous and prudent, in particular parents taking care of their children or with responsibilities for the elderly or the sick. One might think of the 'obligation' to attend Mass as the 'obligation' we might feel to attend the birthday celebration of a beloved friend: an obligation that is serious, but which we fulfil out of love and delight not out of fear of incurring a forfeit or penalty." (Fr Ladislav Orsy, 'Word from the Cloisters' The Tablet)

For any Mass online enquiries ring the Parish Secretary Tuesday-Thursday 9.00am–2.00 pm.

Face coverings must now be worn in Church (unless you are exempt from doing so). Masks are available at the back of the Church, but we would request a donation of £1 if you wish to use one or please feel free to wear your own face covering. Please remember to complete a track & trace form every time you come to Church, for whatever reason, this is an important aspect of keeping people safe from the virus. Forms are kept for two weeks and then shredded. If you have a smart phone, you can 'swipe' your attendance with the QR code.

The RC Bishops Conference has issued their latest guidance on Covid 19. There is only one copy of this on the rear table of the church, so please feel free to read and return it to the table.

Finances: Thank you to all who are continuing to contribute. If you wish to set up a standing order, please contact the office or collect a form from the back of the Church.

Donating by cheque: All cheques should be made payable to PRCDTR Holy Trinity.

Please make sure all giving envelopes are sealed as donations may slip out easily.

If you would be interested in being the correspondence link/secretary for Missio and continuing its support through the Church, please contact the parish office.

Due to some administrative adjustments, if you experience any changes to receiving the newsletter by email, or know of anyone who would like it, but doesn't receive it, please contact the parish office as soon as possible. The newsletter mailing usually goes out on a Thursday, so any difficulty or question will not be seen until the following Tuesday, but will be dealt with.

Called and Gifted: Each of us is created uniquely by God, in our time and place, for a purpose. When we understand and allow ourselves to be aligned with that purpose we are energised and fulfilled; and God's love and provision is able to flow more freely exactly where it is needed, through our spiritual gifts (charisms). Called and Gifted is the discernment process that helps us discover our unique mission. It has a rich history stemming from the Catherine of Siena Institute and the Catholic Diocese of Portsmouth. This programme is now open to anyone in the UK. ### From Fr Barry:

We are in Lockdown! Apart from the good news that we are able to have our Masses, we also have some further information about funerals. As of May 17th, there will be allowed an increase in people attending funerals, however, the church capacity remains at 65 with social distancing so please be mindful of this. Please note that with social distancing involved the church capacity remains at 65 for all occasions – if you can attend during the week, rather than Sundays, please do so. If the church doors are locked, then we are full.

My sister Sara moved into the presbytery during the week and she will pay rent for the bedroom that she is using.

Parish Council: The people serving on the council are: Mark Rodgers (Chair), Christine Land (Vice Chair), Abhishek Manjaly, Saji Devassia, Elizabeth Wilson, Kate Bone, Chris Tozer, Maureen Jones and Blair Hooley.

Fr Barry's Sermon for the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, Year B:

I know this is dangerous at this time of the morning, but shut your eyes and listen to a story! Are you ready? Then I will begin.

Imagine that your doorbell goes, you go and answer it, wondering just who it is. On the doorstep is Jesus. Somehow you know it is the Lord of life, and of course you invite him in. He wants to come and stay with you. Of course you give him the best bedroom in the house. You make him feel welcome, and you excitedly tell the family as they come in, just who it is that is staying.

So you have supper together. This doesn't happen that often these days, but it is special, so you make an effort. You even invite a few neighbours around to share in the meal. He eats with you, and shares with you some of his thoughts. He is rather challenging in his views, and not everyone present is in agreement with him. They begin to wonder just what will happen to the prices of their houses, with such a neighbour. You begin to feel uncomfortable.

Thankfully it is the Parish Pastoral Council tonight, so after supper you invite him to join you in attending the church meeting. Within several minutes there is uproar with the church, as various people disagree with Jesus. So, he has upset your family, your neighbours and now your church. You don't know what to do. You can hardly unfriend him.

Then you have a bright idea! There is a spare cupboard in the house. You clean it out, put a clean piece of linen in it, candles around it, dress it up with flowers, and put Jesus in there. Then you lock the doors and show due reverence to it especially as you pass it. At last, you have Jesus where you want him, and he can't upset your family, neighbours, friends or the church where he is.

I sort of laughed when I heard this, sort of, but you know how it is. I sometimes wonder if we have tamed God, made him in our image, not us in his. It makes you think, doesn't it.
